

Nysse Summer Challenge

I took a tram to see the Creatures of Pyhällönpuisto artwork.

I took Nysse to the Eliander beach for a picnic.

I took a city bike ride through the Näsisaari island end-to-end.

I took a bus to the observation tower and ate a doughnut without licking my lips.

I took a commuter train for the perfect summer trip to a neighbouring municipality.

I took a tram to the outdoor swimming pool and jumped from the diving tower.

I took a bus to say hello to the Ahlman cows.

I took Nysse to the Police Museum and tried to look innocent.
